TUNBRIDGE WELLS WOMAN'S SAD DEATH.

DROWNED IN A WATER TANK.

THE INQUEST.

Mr Theo. Buss, district coroner, held an inquest at the Town Hall, Tunbridge Wells, on Saturday morning, touching the death of Mary Ann Cooke, aged 41 years, whose body was found in a tank at the roof of her house, 49, Kirkdale-road, the previous day.

Harry Cooke, coach builder, of 49, Kirkdale-road, said deceased was his wife, and was 41 years of age. She had been suffering for some years with her nerves, and had been much worse the last two months. She had complained of pains, and had been attended by various doctors—Dr. Abbott, Dr. Grace, and Dr. Neild. Witness thought deceased was getting better recently. Deceased appeared about as usual when witness went to work the previous morning. He had never heard her threaten to take her life. She had no trouble at all. Mrs Pout, a neighbour, and witness's son, stayed with her during the morning. About 12 o'clock witness was sent for, but found his wife was dead when he arrived.

Mrs Pout said she knew deceased, and had
