 Jean White - Good morning. Anxiously awaiting today's show as I too, have an Irish brickwall.

 P.J. Herdman - hello

 Aimee Lara - Hi everyone. I know my roots will eventually lead to Ireland so I'm looking forward to today's show as well.

 Lynnette Bates - I had one brick wall in Ireland and Kate helped break that one!--now I just have one more in Ireland to break. Kate is awesome! Very excited about this Eleveses today.

 Aimee Lara - @Lynnette Bates did you give me the tip last week about Lisa's video on setting up a blog?

 Cathy C - Good morning from Orlando. Waiting to see what the tropical storm with the hard to pronounce name will do.

 Gwynn Socolich - Good Morning! The only Irish I have is really Scots Irish from Londonderry, Northern Ireland. The Riddell family my brick wall.

 Lynnette Bates - No it wasn't me. Sorry-I haven't started the blogging yet.

 Lynnette Bates - Busy day for Lisa!

 Aimee Lara - Ohhh, I'm excited about the free Webinar

 Gwynn Socolich- Made a 35th wedding anniversary surprise for my husband on Adobe Spark it took me about an hour.

 Lynnette Bates - The myheritage webinars have been really great. I schedule my week around them, Eleveses and Legacy Tree webinars!

 Aimee Lara - That's great Gwynn, did he love it?

 Aimee Lara - @Lynnette Bates I had been wanting too for some time, Lisa has an older 4 part series on Blogging that had me up and running in one night!

 Kelly Finchum - Good morning from humid OKC, Oklahoma.

-  Aimee Lara - I wanted to thank the person who told me about the series last week! Thank you!
-  Kasey O'Keefe - Good morning from overcast California
-  Lucinda Lamme - Good morning, from Penfield, New York. I'm very excited about breaking Irish brick walls!
-  Linda J- Kasey, I'm here from Sacramento area, clear & sunny!
-  BeeMelo - Hello from Ohio
-  Carolyn Scism - Good morning from rainy St. Charles, MO! My husband may have Irish and Scots Irish. I'm 100% German.
-  Lucinda Lamme - Praying for your tech troubles, Lisa!!
-  Kelly K - Hello from rainy Louisville, KY.
-  Nancy Eustace - Hello from hot and humid Richmond, VA
-  Gwynn Socolich - @Aimee Lara Yes he loved it. Had some crazy hair back then... hahaha
-  Jan Pritchett Litvin - Hello from Irving, Texas.
-  Lynnette Bates - @Aimee Lara My head is so crammed full of new ideas and projects. Getting organized is my first priority but I have had fun putting together a Google Earth presentation about my great grandfather.
-  jim justice - Hi from Sedro Woolley, WA
-  Barbara Dawes - Hello all from lovely Trenton, Ontario, Canada - may get rain later - but good for the gardens
-  Leslie Hall - Greetings from the beautiful and warm Shenandoah Valley with a lot of Scots-Irish ancestry.
-  Kathleen Jordan - Good morning from Mountain View California. So excited about this weeks topic. Course I feel that way every week
-  Aimee Lara - @Lynette Bates I can't wait to play with Google Earth! @Gwynn Socolich that's fantastic what a great gift.
-  Debbie Atchley- Hello from Arkansas
-  Laura Roselle - Hi from North Carolina.
-  Mary Duke - Hi from Central Texas
-  Kasey O'Keefe - @Linda J, I expect it to clear up later in Santa Rosa
-  Sue Morrison - Hello from Aurora, IL.
-  Linda J - Kasey, yup you have a heavy marine layer (aka Fog).

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems If you're happy to be here will you please click the Thumbs Up button right now under the video? THANK YOU

Margery Morgan - Hi from overcast, but still steamy Matthews, NC.

M. A. Beldin - Hi from Washington State driving to Oregon (hubby's driving, I'm riding so can watch webinar)

M H - Monica H. from Georgetown, TX

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems @M. A. Beldin That's awesome!

Linda Schmidt - Hi from the East Bay, California. Sunny but cool thanks to the San Francisco fog bank.

Aimee Lara - Has anyone here ever been to Ireland? My husband and I really want to go someday :-) Rosalyn Dowling - Hello from Locust Grove, VA, hot and sunny. :)

Penny Blackwell - Hello! from Eastern Kentucky on the OHio!!

Margaret Silva - Hot and sunny in southeastern PA.

Estelle M. Tuozzo - Hello from Illinois

K M Vaughan - good morning from Michigan

M. A. Beldin - cant find thumbs up on phone

Carolyn Halladay - Hello from my new house in Nampa, Idaho!

Hilary Gadsby - Hot here in Wales this afternoon

Aimee Lara - Hi from Stockton, CA. The high will be 96 F today.

Kasey O'Keefe - @Aimee Lara Yes, I was able to track down my family in Northern Ireland. I even met some.

Deer Haven - GM fellow family history searchers from Stephanie Jones here outside of Olympia, WA, USA.

Gwynn Socolich - @Lynette Bates @Aimee Lara I have been working on my Riddells in America MA locations on Google Earth. It took me a while to figure out how to edit pins

Cindy Suda - Hello from Grants Pass, Oregon! <3

Carolyn Halladay - Going to set heat records here today.

Bill Canavan Slante from Sebring Florida

Eric Cook - Hellooooo from Iowa!

Nancy Eustace - Hey Rosalyn Dowling here from Richmond

 Gwynn Socolich - re: editing Google Earth pins.. I finally realized it if I right click while hovering over pin in menu bar I can choose properties and can edit from there.

 Barbara Dawes - Yes, had a trip back in 2003 - need to go back;-)) I did have some success dealing with a librarian and a Vicar who met us out in the countryside and opened up the church - too long a story for here

 Aimee Lara - @Kasey O'Keefe that's fantastic, it looks like a beautiful country. What are the local people like?

 M H - After years of doing Czech research, I'm now researching my Murdock side. Hoping to pick ups some tips.

 Lynnette Bates - @Kasey O'Keefe My brick wall in Ireland is my great grandmother Margaret O'Keefe. I don't know where she is from in Ireland.

 Anne-Marie Bedard - I'm so excited. I've been working normal hours throughout covid and have not been able to sit in on Elevenses Live only taped. I'm finally on a vacation this week and can join in.

 Anne-Marie Bedard - I have an Irish ancestor brick wall!!

 Beverly Lorens - Hi from Sacramento, CA. Hot stretch here (98-100) but so far the Delta breeze has resuced us at night.

 Jane Cronin - I think it is hot in most places, it is very hot here in Englewood, FL. Am looking forward to spending an hour with Lisa Louise.

 Kasey O'Keefe - @ Aimee Lara Very friendly and helpful

 Aimee Lara - So great they were willing to help you @Barbara Dawes

 Carolyn Scism - I registered for the MyHeritage webinar.

 Susan Knos - tHello from Charlotte, North Carolina—

 MargtheCar - Hello from California

 Kay Bobbitt - Hi Everyone

 Barbara Dawes - 3rd great grandmother was a Quaker - records for them are fantastic - 3rd great grandfather is just who he is;-((

 Jennifer McDonald - Hello from California!

 GeneBuds - Greetings to all

 K M Vaughan - back

 Cathy C - I wish I had some Irish breakfast tea. Unfortunately, all I have is Scottish breakfast tea. Darn!

Tracy Melby - Hi from NC

Steve and Ruth Armstrong - Hello from eastern Iowa!

RayleighU3A - Hello from Rayleigh, Essex, England

Gwynn Socolich - @Barbara Dawes I have Sankey Quakers from PA. Love the records.

Deborah Stock - Good afternoon from a warm and sunny Surrey, England! The hottest day of the year here so far I believe - 84F degrees!

Vicky - hello from central Ohio.

Donna SS - Good morning! Greetings from Austin!

Sandra Flickinger - Hello from Kansas. Been looking forward to this all week.

Kathy Taylor - Good morning from Holland, Texas!

Cynthia Owens - Hello Lisa from Oregon!!

Betty Ffrench - -Hello from northern Ontario

Carolyn Halladay - I don't have any Irish ancestors, but love learning from Lisa about anything!

Jean White - Greetings from sunny, beautiful Vancouver Island. Looking forward to learning how to trace my Irish ancestors today. My major brickwall.

Maryann Sezaki - Good morning from sunny Anaheim, California!

Louise Wisener - Hi from Cumming, Georgia

Maria Naccarato - Hello from NYC!

Jan Chavis - Good Morning from San Francisco!

Deer Haven - GM, LISA!

Kathryn Cox - Hello from NorthWest Ohio

Sue Morrison - All I know about my Irish ancestors is that they came from County Donegal. I guess u have to find their townland??

From Lisa: With some of these sites we used in the consultation you just may be able to find them even without the townland.

Charles Meiser - Greetings from the Sault. Michigan that is.

Molly McCurdy - Hi from Ohio!

Beth Griffiths - Hi from Enfield, NH

Barbara Dawes - Anyone with the C282Y Hemochromatosis gene may find their ancestors in Northern Ireland

Betsy Warren - Hello from Dallas, TX.

M. A. Beldin - supposed to be 109 in eastern Washington today heading to cooler climes in Eugene, Oregon

Lucinda Lamme - Hi, Betsy!!

Sarah Louann Cook Holmes - I found you for the first time live! Yeah. From Canby Oregon

Lynnette Bates - @Gwen Socolich My problem is reducing the size of photos I added. I resized in google photos but still too large. Back to Lisa's videos and book!

Margery Morgan - My grand and great grands settled in Ontario for several generations;|

Mary-Jane Roth - Excited to hear how to find my husband's family

Gwynn Socolich - @Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems Any of your Lynch family related to those of Lynchburgh, VA?

From Lisa: Not so far. They headed straight for Wisconsin.

Steve and Ruth Armstrong - My Wade Irish ancestor came to Illinois from Canada.

Deer Haven - Searching McFarlane, McFarland, McIntyre, O'Toole & Blenche.

Carolyn Scism - Does anyone have McPheeters?

Anne Renwick - Hi everyone, from Pincourt Quebec. I too have Irish ancestors who eloped from "Cork".

Gwynn Socolich - @Deer Haven I have McFarland too.

Barbara Dawes - hips likely came in landing at Québec and from there on to wherever they had plans for settling

Katherine Nielsen - Good morning Lisa....from Carmel Valley

Anne Renwick - Grosse Ile, Quebec (check their website for lists of Irish immirants)

Robin - My Byrnes are from Enniscorthy, Wexford, Ireland in 1850's.

Betty Ffrench - There is a Castle Ffrench near Galway, Ireland. My husband would like me make a connection, but so far no castle walls, just brick walls.

Nancy Johnson - Hi Lisa. Tk you once again for generously instructing us during these difficult times.

Deer Haven - @Gwynn Socolich ...Oooh, do you feel they were mostly Scottish or Irish also.

Ty

Andrew Martin - Good afternoon (aka morning) everyone, hope you're all safe and well.

Estella K Johnson - Good morning, also from Carmel Valley, CA

Nancy Johnson - I have Martin O'Brien and Margaret Welsh from County Kilkenny (I think

Lois M. Wells - Greetings from Lexington, MAss

Gwynn Socolich - @Deer Haven re: McFarland: still stuck in Ohio, so I dont know yet.

 K M Vaughan - we have family who were married in Cork, moved to Michigan one son in Michigan then back to Cork. aka Frank McCort(Angela's Ashes)

 Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems@Nancy Johnson It's my pleasure

 Barbara Dawes - My brickwall is Barnabas WARD b c1780 Gorey, Co. Wexford

 M. A. Beldin - this is perfect. been wanting to make apptmt but didnt know if I could provide what I know ahead of time.

 Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems! Learn more or book your consultation at <http://www.LegacyTreeGenealogists.com/GenealogyGems>

 K M Vaughan - my brick wall is Bernard O'Rourke b abt 1838 Rossinver Leitrim

 GeneBuds - My grandmother told me that her grandfather lived in Mayo and entered America in Canada. I assume he was in a coffin ship and would have been quarantined on an island near Quebec. Where to look?

 M. A. Beldin - great!

 Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems@GeneBuds National Library & Archives Canada - Kate touches on that.

 GeneBuds - Good!

 Deer Haven - @Gwynn Socolich ...Thank you.

 Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - Please bear with the screen quality - when the mouse moves the video sometimes has a hard time keeping up.

 Carol Tapp - I'm Carol DYSART Tapp interesting that I believe my Dysart ancestors came from Ireland

 Bruce Horner - hey carol how irish is the name kearns?

 Deer Haven - @Bruce Horner ...In Ireland the name Kearns is derived from the Gaelic O'Ciarain and O'Ceirin - it is anglicised from a Gaelic word meaning 'dark'.

 Bruce Horner - so was that name Americanized

 Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - <https://www.rootsireland.ie/>

 Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - <https://registers.nli.ie/>

 Anne Renwick - I found the 6 siblings of someone Nelson, mother Fitzsimons; in fact the maiden name was McCoubrey. An exercise in cross-referencing birth registrations and finding parents' marriage registration.

 Diane Wadsworth - I have been doing genealogy for a long time...took a DNA and I am 50% Irish Never ever knew that ,so off to look for my Irish line .

 Deer Haven - @Diane Wadsworth ...I have Wadsworth in my lineage.

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems You can book a 45 minute consultation <https://www.legacytree.com/GenealogyGems>

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - I'm searching now through 1840, 1841 all dates mentioned at some point by relatives.

Deborah Stock - It strikes me that by the time Michael was of working age the famine would have been in full flow so maybe it was more likely than before that he would have traveled from of his home area for work

Deborah Stock - "traveld outside his home area"!

Deborah Stock - "traveled"! - typos!!

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - @Deborah Stock good point

Kathy Taylor - Was Catherine a sister to her and Martin a brother to Michael James? Sisters marrying brothers?

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - IrishGenealogy.ie is a free site

K M Vaughan - my family gave one given name at birth and middle name from confirmation.

Anne Renwick - John Grenham is THE Irish research guru; he has a website and fantastic guide book

Deborah Stock - Only non-Catholic marriages were registerd civilly between 1845 and 1864 I believe. Catholic marriages only start in 1864

Deborah Stock - It's possible that they traveled from Ireland to Liverpool, England as that was a major port of departure for America and was just across the Irish sea. Many Irish went from there.

Anne Renwick - @Lisa - are you sure John Scully made it over here? I found one from Cork who died at Grosse Ile

From Lisa: James Scully was Margaret's father and I don't believe he came to America.

Deborah Stock - Therefore it might be worth checking for the marriage in the Liverpool area. And unlike Ireland, all marriages were registered in England from 1837, regardless of religion.

Gwynn Socolich - I love the Wisconsin Historical Society.

Jillian van Turnhout - Yes Deborah is correct, most marriages in Ireland were only registered from 1864 onwards

Cathy C - My grandmother's adoptive father was Irish in Janesville, WI.. many of the Irish came thru Canada, at least in Rock Co.

Deborah Stock - Yes, I was just thinking that if they met on board ship and fell in love, they might have married soon after they arrived, either in Canada or a US port

Margaret Silva - Looking for Mary Mullally from Cavan N Ireland, also the Clarke and McCauley families

Deborah Stock - You'd want to look in adjacent Irish parishes for the baptism record too

Kay Bobbitt - maybe they married on the ship.

Anne Renwick - Northern Ireland best bet: General Register Office of Northern Ireland (GRONI) and Public Register Office of Northern Ireland (PRONI)

K M Vaughan - Bernard O'Rourke (Leitrim) m Anne O'Rourke (Louth) married in Toledo Ohio in 1858.

Barbara Dawes - @Lisa L Cooke - when was their first child born may help determine where and when the parents married

Deer Haven - @Anne Renwick ...Thank you!

Anne Renwick - You're welcome.

Deborah Stock - Do you have Margaret's death certificate? I know many US death certs have the names and place of origin of the person's parents, so that could confirm the Scully/Madigan parentage

GeneBuds - @K M Vaughan I live in Toledo, Ohio. Do you have more info on the date/couple?

Jillian van Turnhout - Agree with Deborah about looking for death record and looking at as many US documents as possible to see what information you can glean. Sometimes a death notice is in the paper and will other details

K M Vaughan - yes live just north in Michigan an use Toledo diocese catholic records from family search. My problem is before Toledo.

Deborah Stock - I think the priest was Rev Timothie Foley

Anne Renwick - If you go to the civil records, you'll get the father's name.

Deborah Stock - Not for that period Anne - the civil records for Catholic marriages only begin in 1864 in Ireland

Aimee Lara - I've heard several genealogy videos talk about hiring experts but where do you find them! I'd love an episode about that.

From Lisa: <http://www.LegacyTreeGenealogists.com/GenealogyGems>

Anne Renwick - Whoops - thanks, Deborah! I had just researched in 1873.

Beverly Lorens - See you over at My Heritage Ask the Experts in moments!

Deer Haven - CONGRATS ON YOUR FINDINGS, LISA!!!

Deborah Stock - Bye!!

Lynnette Bates - So fun!

Anne Renwick - Bye!

Margaret Silva - Thanks for information.

K M Vaughan - thanks Lisa

M. A. Beldin - thank you

Betty Ffrench - Thank you!

Barbara Dawes - Hope everyone has a great day!

Deer Haven - Bye everyone!

Larisa Veselova - Thanks!!!

Katherine Nielsen - Thank you. That was great!

GeneBuds - Congrats!!!

Minipats - Great help, Lisa! Good idea on working with the expert1

Rosalyn Dowling - So interesting! Thank you!
