Elevenses with Lisa Episode 20 Live Chat Log

History Research C Davis - Hi from Detroit Elevenses with Lisa Episode 20 Lynnette Bates - Great house photos! Video & Show Notes . GenealogyGems.com Natalie McLain - Good Morning from Houston, TX! Georgiann Youngstrom - Good morning from Idaho mystic62 - Hello from New Orleans Maryann Sezaki - Hello from Anaheim, California! Debra Honor - I have my tea, Lemon and Ginger and my husband made me blueberry scones! . Carol C- Greetings from Port St. Lucie, Florida! Karl Kramer - Hello from Alloway ۰ Amanda Willis - My VanMeter is Bm 1758 in Virginia Kasey O'Keefe - Hello from Santa Rosa CA. Getting ready for a week's worth of heat wave! Margaret Silva - I've taken photos of all the homes I've lived in and my parents homes, some have been torn down, working on grandparents homes now. Caryl Osborn- Good morning my fellow genealogists! Watching from Las Vegas Jan Chavis - Good Morning from San Francisco! ۰ FRG FRS - hi from Philly . Karen Harrison - Greetings from Southern Oregon! 10 Linda Greethurst - Good morning from wind-blown Urbandale, IA Cynthia Owens - Hello Lisa, excited about today's class!!

House

Gwynn Socolich - @Karl Kramer I have Kramers from Friesland, Netherlands. Do you have any Frisians in your tree?

. Jo Simpson - I hear music -- yippee. I'm here from the Upstate of SC 10 Linda Greethurst - Good morning from wind-blown Urbandale, IA 0 Carolyn Halladay - We just moved in to a brand new home, not too much history here! Elisa Eck - anyone from Wheeling West Virginia my paternal side of the family lived there as far as 1870 I've reached & are people I've never met except for my dad when I met him in my thirties . DeerHaven - GM LISA! ۰ hugh williams - Hi from Basingstoke, Hampshire, UK a Bev Field - I restored a house in Ontario CA and of course being a family historian did a search for its history. Looking forward to this. ۰ C Davis - Hoping to find info on when they was built P. Sec. mystic62 - my first time here. hello Lisa • Natalie McLain - Iced tea today - Pink Citrus Magik X Anne Renwick - @mystic62 - you're going to love this! . DeerHaven - Welcome, mystic62! . hugh williams - Got the Google Toolbox book ۰ Bernice Hartfield - GM Bernice from Florissant, MO Amanda Willis - @Linda VanMeter and @Gwynn Socolich My VanMeter ancestor is Rebecca VanMeter (1758, Virginia - 1825, Indiana) Maryann Sezaki - Hello, mystic62. Glad you've joined us, and sure that you'll be back again next week! Karen Tomblin - My screen has a sound and video delay anyone else? or is it just me. -

C Davis - Looking for info & pics for buildings. no longer existing.

Nancy Trimble - i'm getting some freezing.

11

Anne Renwick - @Karen Tomlin - mine too, will refresh again

Kelli Watts - Morning from Idaho

۲

.

.

.

۰

۲

C Davis - Intro played ok. Nothing else since.

Linda J - Also jumpy & freezing, Refresh your screen.

Cyndy Bray - havesound delay too. Tried refreshing, it didn't work

Karen Tomblin - refreshed already still freezing.

hugh williams - Thunderstorm overhead here in Basingstoke UK. Just broke up.

Deborah Stock - Yep sound delay here too and an ad just broke in!

Anne Renwick - Gaghh! It just disappeared & I'm getting the swirling loading icon

Cynthia Owens - Last week my husband found pictures of his grandfathers restaurant in Ca. that he owed while his dad was young. Very fun!!

C Davis - Restarting

Gwynn Socolich - Im having freezing trouble too. No weather problems here.

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - YouTube is having some trouble - we're working on it hugh williams - back on

Rosalyn Dowling - Hello from Locust Grove, VA

Karen Tomblin - thanks Lisa

Bev Field - went offline seeing black with circling

Margaret Silva - Thanks for the info

Bev Field - 🍅

≰ K M Vaughan- video better

Beverly Lorens - I have probably driven nearby- I live now in Sacramento, 90 minutes north east of San Francisco but grew up in the SF Bay area.

Maryann Sezaki - Karen Tomblin, I have it too. The screen freezes, the audio continues and when the screen unfreezes the sound and video are in sync. Odd, because it's never done this before.

V

.

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - Are you still seeing and hearing the show? Any better? YouTube says the connection is now better

.

 \sim

.

.

Maria Naccarato - Working normally for me now!

hugh Williams - Yes Bill now OK

Nicole Flora - I had to go out and get back into the program.

Deborah Stock - Lisa, will you put that book name in the shownotes please?

Katherine Nielsen - Love the photos you added!

Cherie Baxter - Am I behind?

Deborah Stock - Yes Cheryl we're about 12 minutes in

Futuretreasures - Hi from Boston

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - A Field Guide to American Houses https://tinyurl.com/11house (we'll have complete show notes for you)

Deborah Stock - Thank you!

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - @Katherine Nielsen I had some fun

K M Vaughan - my dad built 2 small houses in Toledo. Toledo has Libby Glass.these were smail and most of the front were built of glass brick Cathy C - Orlando has a Historic Preservation Officer who has a folder on each house in each of the city's historic districts. The public can get a copy of the folder on a specific house.

Amanda Willis - @Cathy C. Thanks for the Orlando info. I have family in that area

•

.

•

•

Barbara Dawes - I have a beautiful pencil drawing of my great grandparents home done by their Home Child - oh to have his talent

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - @mystic62 Welcome, we're glad you're here!

Lynnette Bates - @Barbara Dawes What is a Home Child? I have not heard that before?

mystic62 - thank you, Lisa. I'm excited to be here!

Cathy C - I should add the HP Office folders contain info on homes that are now gone if they existed at the time the survey was done creating the HP district.

Deborah Stock - Lynette - it was a program whereby orphan or poor children in the UK were migrated to Canada in the 19th and early 20th centuries

Karen Tomblin - @Lynnette Bates there is lots of reading out there about Home Children

Anne Renwick - @Lynette: see BIFHSGO.com for a full story and indexes

-

Jean Tempke - I researched a house that my great-grandmother had built. When I viisted the area to take a picture of the outside, the current owner came out to see why I was taking pictures, so he invited me inside

-

Lynnette Bates - Everyone-thank you!

-

Barbara Dawes - @Lynnette Bates a Home Child is a child, in this case, brought over from England in the late 1890's, to be taken in by families in Canada (also same was done in the USA etc). Too much to put here

Jo Simpson - Deeds in PA are indexed by last names

.

Lynnette Bates - @Barbara Dawes Thank you. I can research further. I don't have research in Canada so it wasn't familiar to me.

ø

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - @Lynnette Bates Genealogy Gems Podcast episode 204 features Canadian expert Dave Obee shares the story of the Canadian home children.

ø

.

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - We'll have that log for you in the show notes

Carolyn Ender - Jean Tempke, I had a very similar experience!

Deborah Stock - Wow!! K Anne Renwick - Gold rush money? Karen Tomblin - Lynnette lots of the kids went to the U.S. as adults so if you have a mystery person in that age group they may have been home children. mystic62 - wow • Amanda Willis - It's so cool to hear you found not only the history of the house but also of the land Jean Tempke - @Carolyn Ender It was fun to meet the owner. I was able to show him pics of my gr-gm and a furniture inventory by room from her estate. Barbara Dawes - Lynnette there is a term - something to do with Trains/Rail children used in the USA Gwynn Socolich - Castro related to Governor Castro of Monterey prior to Mexican War? Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - @Barbara Dawes Orphan Train X Anne Renwick - Also: "The Forgotten Home Child" by Genevieve Graham Barbara Dawes - Right on Lisa - knew it was something to do with trains Lynnette Bates - @Barbara Dawes Yes the orphan trains! X Anne Renwick- ooo yes, there's a place names book for Canada too! Jean White - Once again coffee I had hand ready to learn more. Karen Tomblin - U.S. Orphan trains came from Eastern cities to the midwest X Anne Renwick - What a great town history! Gwynn Socolich - I have a book"The Orphan Trains" Placing Out in America: by Marilyn Irvin Holt. IBSN 0-8032-2360-9 Gwynn Socolich - Copyright 1992 -DeerHaven - My father's family were CA pioneers and mom's family were WA state pioneers. Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - Love when that census taker writes in the street name! .

Barbara Dawes - Women didn't get the vote in Québec, Canada until 1941!

Deborah Stock - Sometimes if you don't see the street name on the page you're looking at it's worth paging back because it may be written in by the first of the houses enumerated for that road

Lynnette Bates - on a voter registration in San Francisco, my great grandfather is listed as having :crooked little fingers both hands". So funny!

Lynnette Bates - The clock is amazing!

Frankie Ewing - Question: She keeps referring to her "great grandfather", but doesn't she mean her great grandmother's second husband? Not her real great grandfather?

Sue Morrison - Yes, I've been to a Julia Feiffer beach I think!

Gwynn Socolich - Trying to figure out if a house was part of underground railroad in Knox County, Ohio. Found some great abolitionist interview records in the process.

Deborah Stock - I think you're right Frankie, but I guess he was probably always referred to as Grandpa as it was the only grandfather the children had known DeerHaven - I would want to know where her step gr-grandfather acquired $3,000 in gold? Mining? Gambling? Inheritance?

W Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - @DeerHaven interesting question!

Deborah Stock - Someone else suggested gold rush, which could certainly be a possibility!

Anne Renwick - What great pictures and memorabilia!

DeerHaven - @Deborah Stock ... Agree!

S

-

۰

X

•

X

.

.

.

.

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - YouTube is struggling again - hang in there it should clear up.

hugh williamsYou Tube OK in UK

Anne Renwick - QUESTION: are Sanborne maps only in the US?

Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy GemsSanborn maps in Canada https://www.loc.gov/rr/geogmap/sanbor...

Sue Morrison - Great presentation, but mine cut off just as she started her review. Maybe I'll catch it later.

Anne Renwick - ooo - thank you, Lisa! Cherie Baxter - Mine stopped as soon as she said review resources. Kathy Wiseman - not just you. I had to restart also ۰ Julie Macier - Stopped for me as well and it restarted at beginning instead of resources Karen Tomblin - Thanks Lisa for the Sanborn maps in Canada link. • Arlene Courtney - Stopped working at resources and could not restart at that point. Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - Stream connection has just come back on and says "excellent" give it 30 seconds • hugh Williams - Interupted by Ads Lisa Louise Cooke's Genealogy Gems - Refresh and just skip ads Diane Wadsworth - Excellant . My GG grandfather built a house in 1852 and it stayed in our family til 1940 Ш • Rosalyn Dowling - Thank you! So very interesting! :) Gwynn Socolich - Neat Minnesota house...looks like cousins civil war era farmhouse in Indiana . Arlene Courtney - Tried restarting multiple times but no luck. I will have to see the recording later. . Beverly Lorens - This is the first time I remember ads interrupting the broadcast. Amanda Willis - @Georgiann I think you are right Deborah Stock - Local and community history is so important for putting our ancestors' lives in context Chris Fitzgerald - Wondering what you do when a house dates from very early times. Contacted the local historical society. They just had the bare facts. I need the original builder and/or resident. . hugh Williams - Great Show. Thanks both ۰ Tracey Hall - Wonderful story - thank you so much . Sue Morrison - How did 1906 earthquake affect your g-g grandparents?

Karen Tomblin - Beverly I have never had an ad pop up either, but syncing is off and the pixels are breaking up too. Not the best technical show but so interesting.

Carolyn Scism - Thank you! Deborah Stock - Really interesting - thank-you! Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks! DeerHaven - That was great! Georgiann Youngstrom - Thanks Lisa for this presenter. It was great. Wadine Guilbault - That was fun. Good speaker. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks Lisa for this presenter. It was great. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks! Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks! DeerHaven - That was great! Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks! Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks Lisa for this presenter. It was great. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks Lisa for this presenter. It was great. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks Lisa for this presenter. It was great. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks Lisa for this presenter. It was great. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks Lisa for this presenter. It was great. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks Lisa for this presenter. It was great. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks Lisa for this presenter. It was great. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks hence - So very interesting. Thank you! Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks both. Carolyn Hennessee - So very interesting. Thanks both.

Leslie Hall - Great program!! Thank you!

Bev Field

-

Beverly Lorens - This has sparked my curiosity in the family home in Walnut Creek, CA that my grandparents bought in the 1920's.

Gwynn Sc

Gwynn Socolich - Ready to start pinning Ancestor homes on Google maps for Racine, Wisconsin ancestors.

Anne Renwick - Wow!

Karen Tomblin - Love the topic and the speaker was great. Thanks Lisa!

.

ب

Arlene Courtney- Makes me want to research my family's Florida farm where my father grew up in the 19202, 302 and 40s

Anola Stowick - I grew up in the home that my dad grew up in. My great uncle bought the home in 1892. three generations of Gills lived in that home.

Lillie Lofton - Thank you. Very interesting

Linda J - Bev, my great grandparents built a home in Walnut Creek in the 1870's? or so. -Jean Tempke - Great session! Thanks so much to Kathy. . Linda J - Watched MyH video yesterday on photos!!! . DeerHaven - Been really enjoying free Ancestry through my local library's website...free through August. Barbara Dawes - My Heritage just offered the photo stuff for all not just premium members M. A. Beldin - Interesting, I lost sound and could not comment M. A. Beldin - now all is working • Tracey Hall- Thank you so much Lisa - another wonderful show. I appreciate all that you do. ۲ Gayle Porter - Google Photos -Lucinda Lamme - Thank you, Lisa! . Kathleen Jordan - great information X Anne Renwick - Yay! See you next week! I'll send in my special house story. C Davis - Thanks. Bye. Barbara Dawes - Thanks Lisa a great hour Gwynn Socolich - Second vote for Google Photos . DeerHaven - Been doing research since 1988 and never saw this subject shown before. Thank you! . Lianne Johnson - A very fun interesting hour. I'm searching for my family home and ranch. Great job! ani-prio Caryl Osborn - Thanks! . Tracey Hall - Have a wonderful day everyone M. A. Beldin - love these so much but keeping missing live shows n Nancy Trimble - third vote for Google Photos Jeanne Newstrom - Thanks for providing this; excellent quality.

M. A. Beldin - catching up with recorded ones so thanks for posting them

Carol C - great as always

Cindy Suda - Even with the poor Internet, this was a marvelous topic. So wonderful to see the process. I was on the right track on some things, but many other ideas now to add to the mix! Thank you!